Internet services. Internet service providers ISP. Radio, television, communication, telecommunication and related equipment. To extend the reach of facilities provided to its users, JANET(UK) has established access from JANET to the global Internet. JANET(UK) has implemented this by a threefold approach: 1. peering with commercial Internet service providers (ISP) in the UK; 2. establishing interconnectivity to networks operated by similar academic and research organisations in other European countries and around the world via GÉANT; and 3. procuring transit through two ISPs to the global Internet. It is one of the suppliers for the third part of the provision which JANET(UK) is seeking to replace through lot 1 of this procurement. For lot 2 of this procurement JANET(UK) requires a supplier to provide two 10 Gbit/s connections giving 20 Gbit/s of transit capacity from its JANET point of presence (PoP) in Manchester.
